Take the brief introduction of the Host Group members from us:

Emich Szabolcs ASD Applicant

Roles: The country presentation; IT and technical matters; Monthly newsletter with Kriszta

I am an anthroposophist organisational developer practitioner. I work with organisations, leaders in companies, non-profit organisations and Waldorf schools. I have a passion for research and connecting with people. I work with many of our own anthroposophy based development tools and methods, Mediation, Theory U, Biography, Art of Hosting, Singing and Drama and many more are in my toolkit when I facilitate and help people.

Emih-Kriston Genová Spouse

Roles: Event management, Morning bothmer

I am a Bothmer Gymnastic teacher.

I teach at a Waldorf school in Budapest and on the Hungarian Bothmer course.

I would like to bring a morning movement session to ASD because Bothmer helps to find our center and connect to the spiritual world through movements. It helps keep our balance and to fulfill the space around us with life.

Jusztin Júlia Spouse

Roles: Conference singing, as a process; Cultural evening program and coordination (with the support of Geni)

I am a music teacher in a Waldorf school and I also train teachers at the Waldorf Pedagogical Institute. I started studying at "Jövőképző" 3 years ago, where I have since become a community mediator and organisational developer. I see music as both an opportunity and a tool for bringing people together, working collaboratively, and building community.

Kőrösi Ákos ASD Member

Roles: Guest speakers; HG coordination

I was immediately captivated by the Lievegoed impulse, right at our first meeting. I owe this to Péter Takáts, who worked closely with Lex Bos and brought several prominent NPI/ASD masters to Hungary: Christopher Schaefer, Larsu Salonen, Hermann Seiberth, and many others... Since then, this impulse has developed into a movement and formed a community of consultants. As a result of our work, thousand people have completed our various training courses, and we have developed and continue to develop numerous companies and Waldorf schools. I am a founding member and senior training mentor of this Hungarian consulting association. I have been attending ASD conferences regularly since 2015 and became a member in the Netherlands

Nagy Tibor ASD Member

Communication with FG; Financial planning and budget sharing; Donation discussion with C. Lucke; Accounting arrangements with accountant

I have been a member of ASD since 2016. As a member of the Host Group, I am responsible for finances.

Kattner Krisztina Spouse

Roles: Interior design, artistic elements, plants, flowers; Harmonious conference appearance; English inscriptions; Food & beverage coordination (with Imre's support), Monthly newsletter with Szabolcs

I live near Budapest in a small village called Pilisszentlászló, where a Waldorf School has been operating for 22 years, of which I was a founding member. I have a degree in sculpture and art education. I used to work as an interior designer, designing and building apartments. Since learning Margarethe Hauschka's art therapy method, I have been working with students and teachers at a Waldorf secondary school. I am part of a Waldorf teacher and mentor training program called Kaleidoszkóp. I am passionate about bringing geomancy to as wide an audience as possible, which is why I hold workshops and have translated and published Thomas Mayer's book: Save the Elemental beings. Today, in a sense, I consider myself a social artist, an artist who works as a visual artist with the aim of connecting art with life and thus expanding the boundaries of art.

Bernáth Imre

Roles: Transfer arrangements (he may use the wider Waldorf community for carpooling); Contracts, documentation, legal matters; Hotel liaison; Food & beverage coordination (with Kriszta's support)

I am Waldorf parent and entrepreneur. I am always looking for opportunities to practice social art through active participation in communities.

I love helping and being with people who care about giving to others.

I am an economist with a degree in tourism. I have taken a supporting and organizing role in the practical implementation of the conference. I would like to contribute to the participants having an active, but meaningful and enjoyable week in Hungary.

Until we see you again next month, sunny greetings from

Kriszta and Szabolcs
